

THE HONORS AMBO

Events. Opportunities. Reminders.

Stay connected... stay involved!

FEBRUARY 3, 2014

VOL. II ISSUE 19

Dear Honors Students,

All of our stories are part of a larger story. Check out what else happened on...

This Day in History

1468

Johann Gutenberg, inventor of movable type, died.

1743

Philadelphia established a “pesthouse” to quarantine immigrants.

1917

The United States broke off diplomatic relations with Germany, which had announced a policy of unrestricted submarine warfare.

And don't forget to celebrate the birthday of Horace Greeley, the editor born in 1811 who coined the phrase, “Go west, young man!”

Oh the places you'll go...

... and the Merkel Fund can help! Named after Dr. Ingrid Merkel, the founder of the Honors Program, the Merkel Fund assists students who are traveling for academic purposes. This can include conferences, poster presentations, study abroad, and more. To apply, simply email a one-page letter describing where you will travel, what you will be doing there, and your exact proposed budget for the scholarship money. Deadline: March 21st.

RICHARD III Tickets Go on Sale!

Didn't get a coveted Richard III ticket? Got a ticket, but looking to learn more about how the Shakespeare play came to be? Attend this lecture with Dr. Todd Lidh!

Summon Discovery Project

February 2014

Donate an hour of your time, and win a gift card!

The CUA Library and the Library and Information Science Department are looking for sophomores, juniors and seniors to schedule 1 hour search sessions. This project will help the research team discover how users make use of Summon, an innovative information discovery tool that facilitates searches of library collections and databases from one single search box like Google. Project is funded by a CUA grant. Participants receive a $15 gift card. Please contact Jennifer Fagan-Fry at 88faganfry@cardinalmail.cua.edu or see the attached flyer for more info.

STUDENT CORNER

Your story could go here!

Job Postings

Intern in DC with Australian Catholic University!

The Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities (ACCU) is seeking a CUA student to intern in their Washington DC office to coordinate communications/promotions for an international conference in 2015. The conference is the General Assembly of the International Federation of Catholic Universities (IFCU) which will be held in Melbourne, Australia. The Australian Catholic University (ACU) will host the event at its Melbourne campus.

If you are interested in communications, international relations, marketing and/ or Catholic Higher Education this may be a great role for you!

See the attached flyer for more details. The internship is not for credit, but is paid.

Deadline to apply is Monday, February 10th.

Thinking about CUA for grad school? Work with the Honors Program!

Honors Program alumni (or soon-to-be alumni) are eligible to apply for the Honors Graduate Fellowship. Work 20hrs/week while enrolled in a CUA graduate program, and receive full tuition remission and a generous stipend. Deadline to apply: Feb. 15, 2014. Please email purpleke@cua.edu for more info and an application.
