Dear Honors Students,

Registration for the fall 2014 semester began today! If THIS is the state of your plans…

… please come see us for an advising meeting!

Reminder:
- freshmen (unless newly-admitted to the UHP) meet with Lisa Campbell;
- new UHP admits, Business & Econ majors, and Liberal Studies trackers meet with Dr. Paxton;
- juniors preparing for Capstone meet with Dr. Shoemaker;
- other upperclassmen meet with Jillian Moser or Katie Purple.

Call 202-319-5220 or stop by the Honors Office to make your appointment!

Fulbright Info Session

Have you ever considered spending a year abroad after you graduate, conducting research or serving as an English Teaching Assistant? If so, come learn about the Fulbright U.S. Student Program! Tuesday, March 25th, 2:30-3:30 pm in Pryz 327. General information about the program and application process will be presented, and we will have plenty of time to answer your questions!

If you would like more information about the Fulbright program but are unable to attend this informational session, please contact Julie Yarwood, Fellowships Advisor (Yarwood@cua.edu), to schedule a meeting.

Hear ye, hear ye!

Be a chess piece at Medieval Day 2014

Come celebrate all things medieval with Dr. Paxton on Sunday, April 6, from 1 to 6 pm on the Pryz Lawn. There will be medieval weapons demonstrations, musical performances, crafts, and a catapult! At 5pm we will stage our famous human chess game. If you would like to be a chess piece, please send an email to Dr. Paxton (Paxton@cua.edu) so that she can send you a link to the electronic signup.

A Penny for your Thoughts (Page 1)

“Painting is poetry that is seen rather than felt, and poetry is painting that is felt rather than seen.”

- Leonardo da Vinci
Friday Afternoon Tea
Friday, March 28  4:00pm-5:00pm
Dr. Rohlf’s Apartment, McDonald 204
Hot tea, good fellowship, good conversation, and hopefully an appearance by Alexander himself. Join us!

Tour of the National Building Museum
Sunday, April 27
Explore DC’s museum of architecture, engineering, and design! Past exhibits have featured sustainability projects, Shakespearean theaters, World Fairs, modernist architecture, and even LEGO buildings! Check out a video preview of a new exhibit, called House and Home here. Stay tuned for more info.

Did you spend spring break in Madrid?
We would love to hear about your experience and share your pictures in our “Student Corner!” Drop by the Honors Office in 112A or 107 McMahon, or share your pictures with us via email at cua-honorsprogram@cua.edu.

Thursday night featured an intense Jeopardy! competition for a Potbelly’s gift card! Team “Ghost Ride The Whip,” made up of Brian Dawson, Andrew Miller, Mallory Nygard, Liam McDonough, and Isaac Kimmel, faced off with Team “MATS” (“Maria and the Seniors”), made up of Sophie Gorman, Kevin Oriansi, AJ Kueppers, Annie Schrandt, and Maria Rodriguez. After some difficult questions, MATS took the lead and claimed the prize. Congratulations to our Jeopardy champions!

A Penny for your Thoughts (Page 2)

“Everything that you can imagine is real.” - Pablo Picasso