Dear Honors Students,

As St. Augustine heard in the mystical song of a young child at the moment of his conversion, tolle lege: take up and read.

Please enjoy the following, and may you all have a wonderful week.

Honors Symposium

Dr. Michael Kimmage, Department of History

Where: The McDonald Lounge
When: Thursday, January 31st @6PM

Don’t forget about this month’s Honors Symposium with Dr. Kimmage, professor of Honors Humanities! The symposium will consist of fine intellectual discourse and a nice home-cooked meal. Dr. Kimmage earned a PhD in history from Harvard and has written three books. He speaks fluent Russian and German and also studied the piano and flute at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music.

If you want to attend, you MUST RSVP to Andrew Krema at the following email address:
75krema@cardinalmail.cua.edu
Space is limited! RSVP as soon as possible!

Henry V Dates to Remember

Showing at the Folger Theatre

Be advised! The Honors Program will be making a group excursion to the Folger Shakespeare Theatre to see the play “Henry V” on February 15th, at 8:00PM. Details on rendezvous and transportation will follow via email for those who purchase tickets. And until then, remember: Gentlemen in England now a-bed shall think themselves accursed they were not there, and hold their manhoods cheap whilst any speaks who came with the UHP to this play at the Folger.

Tickets go on Sale

Tickets to see the play will go on sale this coming Wednesday, January 30th in McMahon 112A at 9:00AM on a first come, first serve basis. Nota bene that this date has been recently changed from Monday, January 28th. Please refer to http://honors.cua.edu/Current-Students/DCLife.cfm for UHP policy concerning event ticket purchase.

Henry V: Fact and Fiction

Dr. Jennifer Paxton

If you would like to know more about the historical context for Shakespeare’s famous drama, Dr. Jennifer Paxton of the Center for Medieval and Byzantine Studies will be giving a talk on February 11th at 5:00PM in the McMahon Admissions Annex.

Dueling Philosophers: Where Great Minds Go At It (Page 1)

Whoever loves becomes humble. Those who love have, so to speak, pawned a part of their narcissism.
